

Speaker's Profile

Megan lemma – Founder of Tech Coach HQ

Tech Coach and 'IT' girl Megan lemma is a thought leader in the world of technology and its uses.

As an educator and self-confessed 'techno-geek', Megan combines her passion for communication with her addiction to technology as the founder of Tech Coach HQ; working with businesses, community groups, individuals and schools to improve their processes and let them embrace the productivity (and fun) technology has to offer.

Megan covers a comprehensive portfolio of streamlined business and personal technology benefits to deliver information that really does change lives.

Three reasons to book Megan lemma

1. Megan knows how to make technology both fun and functional.
2. Megan can help audience members look beyond technology roadblocks to see how technology tools help with productivity.
3. Megan's enthusiasm for technology is infectious.

Testimonials

"Megan is an exceptional mobile learning consultant and educator. Her connections and her ability to influence outcomes are paramount in today's social media and mobile world. She is a regular contributor and speaker at conferences, tradeshows and on-line pod casts and blogs and produces her own on-line news spread called the Megan lemma Daily. If you are seeking a point of difference with the way in which your work teams engage and use mobile technologies, then look no further than Megan – you will be impressed by her ideas and knowledge. I know, I am". Sonia Kokkalos - Recruitment Pool

"Megan's Evernote 101 course is highly recommended for anyone who is dying to take control of their digital clutter. Megan is incredibly knowledgeable on all the ways of Evernote and its associated applications, and her classes are both informative and illuminating.

As a presenter, Megan's style is fun, engaging and she is eager to pack the session with a ton of information. Thanks to her interactive techniques and high-impact material, students come away not only with technical tips and tricks but, more importantly, a survival kit of life skills that are essential for today's digerati. Just make sure you bring along something to jot down notes as there is a lot of information". Kym Huynh - WeTeachMe

"Megan's professionalism, enthusiasm and achievements are truly remarkable".

About Tech Coach HQ

Tech Coach HQ envisages a world where individuals and organisations can harness complex technology for their own needs and agendas, in ways that make sense to them. And we help make it a reality.

Your business can use social media, mobile learning and online tools to optimise productivity, time management and work-flow, and to enable different kinds of work.

At Tech Coach HQ, we help you understand what technology can do to reduce your personal and professional workload, how it can become part of your positive daily habits, and how to replace technology discomfort with enthusiasm to transform your life.

Embedding technology into your working and social life is not simply a matter of providing good system manuals.

At Tech Coach HQ, we empower you to truly understand the technology that will benefit your life – and deploy it, beyond the bottom line, to help build social capital in a way that is only just beginning to be recognised and appreciated.
